Tomas Porturas

Vice President
Social Impact & Sustainability
Wells Fargo & Company

Tomas Porturas is Wells Fargo's Social Impact & Sustainability Vice President for New Jersey. In this role, he is responsible for region-wide Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) initiatives, Community Reinvestment Act (CRA) compliance management, team member volunteerism, and external stakeholder engagement to help strengthen the communities Wells Fargo serves.

Based in Summit, Porturas is a 17-year industry veteran with diversified CSR experience within the financial services industry. His expertise includes grant making, community relations, economic and neighborhood development, and CRA risk management. He began his banking career in 1997 as a mortgage sales consultant in Northern NJ, and has held various roles in banking and community development.

A dedicated civic leader, Porturas currently serves on the boards of directors and advisory councils of the Union County Economic Development Corporation (UCEDC), Local Initiatives Support Corporation (LISC) Greater Newark and the Elizabeth Development Company (EDC).

Porturas holds a master degree in Electric Engineering from the Kiev Institute of Civil Aviation Engineers in Ukraine as well as a Masters in Business from the New Jersey Institute of Technology (NJIT). In addition, he has completed highly selective training programs offered by the New Jersey Redevelopment Authority and Leadership Newark.

A sought-after conference speaker, Porturas has presented on various topics including financial education, affordable housing, neighborhood revitalization, and sustainable entrepreneurship. His speaking engagements have included the Newark Rutgers Business School Entrepreneurship Pioneers Initiative and Hispanics Inspiring Students Performances summits.
